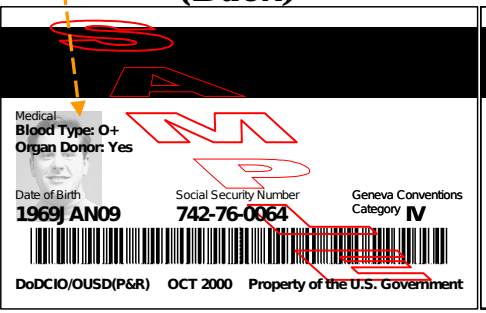
DoD Common Access Card Quick Reference Sheet

U.S. Armed Forces Geneva Conventions ID Card



Recipients
- Active Duty Armed Forces
- Selected Reserves
- National Guard members
- National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration
- U.S. Public Health Service

Status
- Active Duty (w/green font)
- Reserve (w/green font; Commissary Cards still required)

U.S. Geneva Conventions Accompanying Civilian ID Card

Recipients
- Emergency-Essential Employees
- Contingency Contractor Employees
- Deployed Overseas Civilian Non-Combatant Personnel

Status
- Civilian
- Contractor

U.S. ID and Privilege Card

Recipients
- DoD/Uniformed Services Civilians residing on a military installation in CONUS, HI, AK, Puerto Rico, or Guam
- DoD/Uniformed Services Civilians or Contracted Civilians residing in a foreign country for at least 365 days
- Presidential Appointees approved by Senate

Status
- Executive

U.S. ID Card

Recipients
- DoD Civilian Employees
- Eligible Contractor Employees

Status
- SES (Senior Executive Service)
- Civilian
- Contractor (w/green color band)
- Foreign National (w/red color band)

Service
Status
Name
Rank
Chip
Optically Variable Device (OVD)*
Privileges
Benefits
Color Band*
Social Security Number
Ghost Images
Medical

* - Color Band and OVD not included during beta testing (first 50,000 cards issued)

 - Without connectivity, a temporary CAC will be issued without a

 - Must be registered in the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS)

For Official Use O